5. CHAIRMAN'S REPORT – Roger Enstrom (239-707-9616)

The Welcome Back Picnic sign-up sheets are being passed around. The picnic is January 21st and is a CRC sponsored event. Everyone in the CRC is expected to work this event. Don't sign up your spouse unless you check with them.

A Wi-Fi Meeting is scheduled on Wednesday, January 4th at 6:30 PM in the Clubhouse. Try to send someone from your circle even if you don't have Wi-Fi provided by the Circle. This will be the only meeting this season.

Keep your circle entrance decorations up until January 2, 2017.

You have a copy of this season's BOD Award Nomination Forms. It will also be in the January Woodlander. Please encourage your residents to fill one out. You can't be nominated if you received an award in the last 6 years.

A Special CRC/Alternate CRC meeting is scheduled for January 17th following the regular CRC meeting. Plan on attending.

The first Wednesday Night Special is January 18th "The Great Depression" at 7 PM, recounted by those in our park who lived it.

6. VICE CHAIRMAN'S REPORT – Becky Jenkins (765-652-0023)

Becky asked if each Circle has a representative that sells tickets to dances and shows. Please e-mail Becky at ranbeck63@gmail.com with the person that takes care of your circle. She will issue a list to all circles to help with ticket distributions. If no one from your circle sells tickets, send her an e-mail and note that information. It would be helpful to put your Circle name and Tickets in the subject line.

If the CR and Alternate CR are both absent from your Circle, please have someone designated to pick up the mail in the CR box in the Library at the Clubhouse.

Make to check on the low branches in your circle. The fire trucks are 13.5 ft high.

Meet & Greet, Get the Scoop will be on January 11th. The program runs from 3 to 4:15 and will give a history of the park, Board of Directors, CRC, and Web site to name a few. This is targeted to new owners and renters, but anyone can attend as a refresher. This will be followed by an Ice Cream Social. We need people to set up tables at 2:15 on Jan 11, 2017 as well as volunteers to dish up the ice cream. Tell your neighbors and come up and get the scoop.

Activity Fair, Carol Koltz, (715-574-2431) wants everyone to let her know by 12/14/16 if they are coming to the Activity Fair to host a table.

We will have two new categories this year; Corkscrew Representative Council table will be hosted by Agnes Perkins (609-312-1485) and a Church Service table that we need someone to host.

22. SAFETY & MAINTENANCE – OPEN POSITION

23. SPORTS & RECREATION – Wayne Jones (315-771-1883, 4 Falcon)

The Sports Books are ready. A meeting will take place for the Sports Representatives on December 15, 2016 at 10 AM at the Clubhouse. They still need a Table Pool Commissioner, if interested contact Wayne Jones.

The first sports activity is bowling on January 8, 2017.

Golf Outing, Norm Fontaine (239-947-0066) Vireo 11,

Norm stated that the Corkscrew Golf Outing is January 28, 2017. This event helps fund the Block Party. Please return the form and money for the hole sponsors and get your teams registered for this event.

24. WEB SITE – Gene Richardson (612-385-6056, genemar943@gmail.com)

Janine Byrnes (330-219-7300) Janine.byrnes@yahoo.com stated that the directory changes for the web are due back by 1/3/17. E-mail or call Janine with questions. If you would like future update request e-mailed to you, let Janine know and she will take care of that for you.

25. WPA- Al Ekberg (239-947-3724)

The painters finished washing the outside of the Clubhouse. They are getting ready to paint same. The colors have already been picked.

The carpenters installed a rail going into the Clubhouse. They also worked on Falcons laundry room.

They inspected all of the circle buildings for damaged wood, and made a list of boards to be replaced.

The stump grinders worked on # 10 Kite Circle, # 13 Heron, # 27 Pelican, # 20 Falcon, # 37 Kite and # 3 Gull.

There was a broken pipe in Spoonbill Circle, and it took a while to find it. They had to take down some of the shower wall in the ladies room. It was a water line that was capped so the water could be turned on in the center building.

The workers placed bags of mulch around the Butterfly Garden so the Club could spread it.

The cement crew is looking for new workers.

The WPA will be off for the holidays, till Monday, January 9, 2017.

We would like to thank Trakside for the donuts, and Owl and Pelican Circle for the goodies. January 9th it will be Rail Circle's turn, followed by Spoonbill Circle.

The men and ladies of the WPA wish everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

26. GENERAL MANAGERS REPORT- Tim Fisher (239-992-3401)

New gates were installed at the front entrance. Remind residents that only 1 car can go thru the gates at a time. The first week someone hit the gate and bent it. Kaye Wilkins from Dove circle mentioned that a bicyclist was hit on the head by the gate after the first person went thru.

Holiday Office Schedule. The office will be closed at noon on December 23rd and all day on December 26th. For New Years, they will close at noon on December 30th and all day on January 2, 2017.

27. Old Business.

Lee Health Workshop, Carol Barclay (239-947-1127) Owl 3

Carol introduced Sharon Krispinsky from Lee Memorial Hospital who talked about the Chronic Disease Workshops that will take place at the Clubhouse from Wednesday, January 11, 2017 for 6 weeks until February 15, 2017 from 9 to 11:30. This is a work shop that helps self manage chronic health conditions such as Diabetes, Arthritis, Cancer, Respiratory Conditions, Heart Disease, and High Blood Pressure. You can call 239-343-9264 to register and they take the first 20 people. Additional workshops are available at remote sites throughout the community. The extension at the Clubhouse will be closed during this time for privacy. Once we have 20 people, you can still join a workshop but it will be off site.

Elwood Plaggemars (239-495-8036) noted that the Luminaries are ready to be picked up from the front table. New forms will be in the CR's mailboxes for next year's luminaries. You will need to fill them out and return them to the appropriate mailbox at the Clubhouse.

Sue Jacoby, Heron 6, (410-215-0476) noted that we are still collecting soda pop tabs for the Ronald McDonald House. She mailed 3 boxes to them and they sent back a thank you letter. New boxes will be dropped off at each Circle House soon.

Carol Koltz (715-574-2431) stated the Meet & Greet is on January 11th from 3 to 4:15 and the Activity Fair is on Thursday, January 12th from 8 to 10 AM. They will need people to set up for both events. Need a tear down crew at 4:30 for the Meet & Greet, and then help rearrange the chairs for the Activity Fair.

Roger has the signup sheet for the picnic and will post it in the clubhouse. He will re-type up a new sheet as the spaces start to fill up.

28. New Business

Carol Barclay, Owl 3 (239-947-1127),

COMMENTS FROM THE BOARD

Norm Hunsburger (574-528-1470) Tern 28, Board President

Norm asked where the big alligator is, because she is not behind Pelican Circle.

Tim said that she moves to deeper water when the water level gets low

Don't feed the animals. People are feeding the bunnies carrots and that attracts rats

Reminder that you are not allowed to have glass bottles or any glass around the pool. Please remind the residents.

The Board wishes everyone a Merry Christmas & a Happy New Year.

He thanked the CRC Council for all of the work they do to save the park money.

Comments from the Audience

Sue Guilford, Stork put flyers in the mailboxes for Michigan Day on January 29th.

Corey Gessler stated that the signs in the Clubhouse noting the Board & CRC Meetings have not been updated

Roger reminded that the two signs that the CRC has are to be used for CRC & Park activities. A calendar is being developed to reserve the signs. Janine Byrnes 330-219-7300, Warene Eldridge, 207-215-7118 and Mary Goll, 517-605-6241 have keys to the cabinet in the card room that houses the signs. Please call one of them if you need to use a sign.

Roger also wished everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

A Motion was made by Carol Koltz to dismiss the meeting and seconded by Ruth Smith.

Next meeting is Tuesday, January 3, 2017 at 9 AM.
